Army Emergency Relief Campaign Starts April 1

Army Emergency Relief is a private nonprofit organization whose mission is to provide emergency financial assistance to active-duty, retired, Army Reserve and National Guard Soldiers on continuous duty for more than 30 days. This includes dependents as well. AER provides interest-free loans and grants to cover emergency financial needs for food, rent, utilities and personal needs. AER does not receive any government funds, so it relies on contributions from active-duty and retired Soldiers and Army civilians. There is no dollar limit on AER assistance, and you do not have to be an AER contributor to receive help. All donations are tax-deductible. The annual AER fund campaign runs April 1 to May 15. For more info call 421- 2153/civ. 0711-729-2153 or visit www.aerhq.org.

Red Cross Offers Vacation Safety Tips

The Stuttgart American Red Cross offers some tips to ensure a safe journey with your family. Ensure each traveler has an updated list of phone numbers and e-mail addresses of essential contacts. Establish an out-of-town friend to be your family contact and ensure family members know how to contact them.

Bring passports if traveling outside the U.S., even if a passport is not required in some countries. If a photo ID is not available, bring a current photo with the traveler's full name, date of birth and social security number. For more info call 431-2818/civ. 07031-15-818.

Report All Espionage Incidents

Community members can help prevent subversion and espionage by guarding against the collection efforts of foreign intelligence services. Watch for those who attempt to gain information about military missions, activities, equipment, facilities or personnel using unsolicited letters or e-mail. Report incidents by calling the Stuttgart Military Intelligence Office at 421-2206/civ. 0711-729-2206.
